15.3 Election

- (a) The Board shall determine the appropriate nominations of positions to the Board with the view to ensure the optimum efficiency of the Board.
- (b) No election term shall exceed three (3) years.

15.4 Triennial Rule and Subsequent General Meeting

It is desirable that replacement of Board members should be staggered over the three-year term of office for the Board members, so that only one third of the Board are replaced, in order to retain corporate membership and business continuity. In general, it's desirable that the President and Vice President should not be replaced in the same election, and similarly the Captain and the Treasurer should not be replaced in the same election. The remaining Directors should be up for election in alternate years, so that one existing member is re-elected, or a new member is elected every year

Filling of casual vacancies on the Board by a Director who will serve out the elected term of the retiring Director should minimise the need to invoke the Triennial rule, however, where a majority of the Board resigns or is removed at general meeting by the membership, at the same time, then the Triennial Rule will come into effect, such that some directors will be elected for one, some for two, and some for three-year terms, according to the following:

- (a) President and Treasurer are to be elected for three-year term;
- (b) Captain and Vice President for a two-year term initially; and
- (c) other Directors elected for 1, 2, and 3-year terms, decided by lot.

At subsequent general meetings, where the triennial rule is in effect, the term of appointment for directors will revert to the three-year period once the Triennial appointment period has expired.

- (a) At each general meeting held while the triennial rule is in force (other than the first such meeting) the number of Members required to fill vacancies (other than casual vacancies) on the Board shall be elected and shall, unless otherwise disqualified hold office for three (3) years.
- (b) A person who fills a casual vacancy in the office of a member of the Board elected in accordance with this Article shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office expiration of the Board member that has been replaced.
- (c) A person who fills a casual vacancy in the office of a member of the Board elected in accordance with this Article shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office until the next succeeding Annual General Meeting.
- (d) In the event that the number of candidates nominated for any position on the Board exceeds the number required to be elected, a ballot shall be held prior to the Annual General Meeting as provided for. Ballot papers shall be emailed or posted to members eligible to vote for the election of the Board of Directors, for completion and return either by mail or delivered to the office of the Club during office hours prior to closing date.
- 15.5 A person whose term of office as a member of the Board expires is not for that reason ineligible for election for a further term.

15.6 Voting Procedure

- (a) Except as hereinafter provided nominations for election to the Board shall be made in writing signed by two (2) Full or Life Members of the Club entitled to attend and vote at General Meetings and by the nominee who shall state the office or offices for which the nominee is nominated.
- (b) Nominations shall be lodged with the General Manager at the office of the Club at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the Annual General Meeting at which the election is to take place. The General Manager shall forthwith post notification of such nominations on the Club notice board.
- (c) Members eligible for election to the Board may be nominated for more than one office and in the event of their being elected to the senior office as hereinafter provided shall be deemed to have been eliminated from candidature for election to the junior office. For the purpose of these Articles the order of seniority of offices shall be:

Firstly: President

Secondly: Vice-President

Thirdly: Captain Fourthly: Treasurer

Fifthly: Ordinary Board member

- (i) If the number of candidates duly nominated for any office does not exceed the number required to be elected, the candidate or candidates nominated shall be declared elected at the Annual General Meeting.
- (ii) If insufficient nominations be received for any offices the candidate or candidates, if any, nominated shall be declared elected at the Annual General Meeting and nominations may with the consent of the nominee, be made orally at the Meeting for the vacancies then remaining. If more than one candidate is nominated for such vacancies an election by ballot for such vacancies shall be held at the meeting.
- (iii) If the number of candidates nominated shall exceed the number required to be elected, a ballot shall be taken prior to the Annual General Meeting as provided by By-Law provided that the ballot shall be counted by a Returning Officer and two or more scrutineers appointed by the Board. A candidate for any position shall not be appointed as Returning Officer or as a scrutineer. In the event of an equality of votes in favour of two or more candidates the Chairman of the Meeting shall draw lots between the candidates having an equality of votes so as to ensure the election of the necessary number to fill the vacancies.
- (iv) The voting paper or papers shall contain in alphabetical order the names of all duly nominated candidates for the respective positions .
- (v) The voter shall mark his/her voting paper by making a tick or a cross, no numbers, opposite the name of each candidate for whom he/she wishes to vote.
- (vi) Any voting paper upon which the votes are not recorded for the exact number of candidates to be elected shall be rejected as informal.
- (vii) In any case of doubt as to the formality of the voting paper the matter shall be referred to the Returning Officer whose decision shall be final.
- (viii) The Board may make By-Laws consistent with this Constitution concerning, or otherwise determine, the procedure as to nominations and the conduct and declaration of the election.
- (ix) The Board may at any time appoint a Director pursuant to section 30(1) (b1) of the Registered Clubs Act, provided that the total number of Directors must not exceed any maximum prescribed in accordance with Section 10(1) (k1) of the Registered Clubs Act.
- (x) A Returning Officer shall be appointed annually by the Board. The Board will seek expressions of interest from the ordinary membership. The Returning Officer is not eligible for election to the Board.

- (a) Subject to this Constitution, the members in General Meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any Director or Directors before the expiration of their period of office, in accordance with the Corporations Act, and may by ordinary resolution appoint another eligible member or members in their place. Any member so appointed will hold office only during such time as the Director in whose place they are appointed would have held the same if they had not been so removed.
- (b) In addition to the circumstances in which the office of a Director becomes vacant by law or under this Constitution, the office of a Director becomes vacant if the Director:
 - (i) Dies;
 - (ii) is absent from meetings of the Board for a continuous period of 3 months or from 3 successive meetings of the Board, without leave of absence from the Board;

3. Procedures for Nominating for Election to the Board and Method for Casting a Vote in Elections

3.1 Nomination for Election to the Board

- (a) Any eligible member can nominate for election to the Board, following notification of the specific dates and times as required by Clauses the 15.5 (d) and (e) of the Constitution.
- (b) Nominations must be in writing, using a nomination form created for the purpose.
- (c) Nominations can be submitted in hardcopy or electronically. A nomination submitted electronically must be accompanied by a scanned copy of the fully completed nomination form.
- (d) The Returning Officer will notify nominees of receipt of their nomination in a timely manner, prior to the closing date for nomination.
- (e) Nominations must be specifically addressed to the Returning Officer of the Club. This means the nomination can be received by in person submission of the nomination form at the registered offices of the Club, by post addressed to the Returning Officer at the club, or to a Returning Officer email address specifically established for the purpose of receiving nominations. Nomination cannot be made by email or other electronic means, to any person's personal email or social media account, or
- by announcing a nomination via a blog, Facebook, Twitter post or any other such means, even if the nomination form is used.
- (f) A nominee must indicate at the time of nomination which office or offices they are nominating for (see Clause 15.5(f) of the Constitution.
- (g) A nomination must be supported by two (2) Full or Life members of the Club who are entitled to vote at general meetings.
- (h) Under Clause 15.5(e) nominations shall be received no later than 21 days prior to the General Meeting at which the election of Directors is ratified. This cut-off date must be clearly indicated on the nomination form. For the purposes of this By-Law, "received" means verified as received (by date stamp or other indication of submission) at the Offices of Gosford Golf Club by 5 pm on the cut-off day. Submissions made by electronic means must be date stamped prior to the cut-off date and time by the Club's ISP.

3.2 Method of Voting

- (a) The method of voting shall encapsulate two principles:
 - i Each member can only vote for one candidate for each office up for election. Note, in most cases there is only one Director required for each office, but in the case of Ordinary Board Member offices (see 15.5(f) of the constitution), a member may vote for as many candidates as there are total numbers of offices available in this category. For example, if there are two Ordinary Board Member offices up for election and there are more than two candidates for these offices, a member may vote for no more than two (2) candidates.
 - ii All voting for election of Directors is to be by secret ballot. This specifically means that if a member writes any means of their identification on the ballot paper (for example, their name or membership number), the vote will be deemed invalid.

- (b) The Club will use a first-past-the-post voting system and a candidate is deemed elected if they obtain more primary or first preference votes than any of the other candidates for an office, even if this is not a majority of the overall votes for that office.
- (c) A valid vote can be cast by a mark ("X" or "V" or other clear indication of intent of the voter), or the number "1" next to a candidate's name. If more than one candidate's name for any one office is so marked, it will be deemed valid if the Returning Officer is satisfied that there is a clear indication of the intent of the voter. For example, if a voter writes successive numbers next to more than one candidate's names for a single office (i.e., 1, 2, 3 etc), the candidate marked "1" shall have the vote counted in their favour as a valid vote. Similarly, if a voter circles one candidate's name only, places a tick next to one candidate's name only, crosses out all but one candidate's name, places a tick next to one candidate's name and crosses out all the other candidates' names, or simply crosses out all but one candidate's name), the vote can be considered valid by the Returning Officer. The guiding principle should be the clear intent of the member, in the opinion of the Returning Officer.
- (d) If more than one director's position, other than the President or the Captain, is up for election, these shall be treated as one position for the purposes of the ballot paper and voters can indicate their intent either by numbering, or other means, on the ballot paper, as long as the indicated votes do not exceed the number of positions available. For example, if there are two positions to be elected and five people nominate, a member may cast a valid vote by numbering the candidates from 1 to 5, or any number up to 5, by crossing out at least three of the candidates' names, by ticking or circling the names of two candidates only, or any other clear indication of the preferred two candidates. In this circumstance, both votes will count as a primary or first preference votes, even if an order is indicated. If the number of indicated votes exceeds the positions available, except where the candidates have been numbered, the vote shall be invalid. The guiding principle should be the clear intent of the member, in the opinion of the Returning Officer, for the number of positions available.
- (e) In any case of doubt as to the validity of the voting paper the matter shall be referred to the Returning Officer whose decision shall be final.
- (f) Voting must be completed using a ballot form created for the purpose, or electronically, using an online method in which a voter can be deemed to have submitted a single vote for each office, but whose identity cannot be directly associated with that vote.
- (g) Where possible, there will be a single ballot form for all offices up for election. Where there are more nominations for an office than positions available, candidates' names will appear on the ballot paper in an order determined by lot conducted by the Returning Officer.
- (h) Voting shall be concluded prior to the General Meeting at which the results of the election are to be ratified, at a date and time to allow timely counting of the votes.
- (i) The final time and date for submission of voting papers shall be published on the ballot paper.
- (j) In order to ensure that each member is submitting only one ballot paper, accompanying verification must be provided with the ballot paper. This should be by signature on hardcopy submissions, or other means, if the vote is undertaken electronically (e.g., unique login and password set up by the member).
- (k) Members who are also employees of the Club are not eligible to vote in elections for the governing board (from Registered Clubs Act 1976 Sect 30).
